

Distillation Column Waste Reduction via Increased Recycling

The Chemours Company achieved over $1 million in annual savings on waste disposal costs at its Corpus Christi manufacturing site by employing a distillation column, which effectively reduced waste by 60% in a single process step.

- ▶ Increased yield and recycling without sacrificing quality or catalyst integrity in the reaction
- ▶ Achieved savings with no capital costs
- ▶ Approach is being investigated at other Chemours locations

